

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS® COUNCIL 4330

October 2017 Newsletter

Halloween

October is upon us. Fall is here, the autumn colors are turning make the Midwest look beautiful. God has created such a great place for us Catholic men to live. What a busy month with the Tootsie rolls going and the Parish Picnic and the Pancake breakfast. We have had one busy month. What to start with you ask.

Recruiting

We did some recruiting at the parish picnic. We also did some at the pancake breakfast. We ask for the Knights to work with us heavily on this as we would like to build the council big this year. Will be holding a 1st Degree in October after the next council meeting. Also for those of you who are interested and have not received their 2nd or 3rd degree. St Rita is holding a Major Degree on November 19th at 1:00pm We encourage those who are not 3rd Degree to please take advantage of this home location. As with a 3rd degree you will learn more about the Knights and will be able to do more as well.

Trunk or Treat

Anthony will have his van at the trunk or treat at St. Bridget. On October 29th. All Knights who will be attending please come hang out.

Knight of the Month

Special: Don Van Den Broeke

September: Nick Frank Nick has done a lot for our church and community. He was a big help with the picnic running the kid's games. He also organized the student minister week kick off with the paint war and the knocker balls for the H.S. and Middles school students.

Don was a big help to the tootsie roll drive. He showed up to a few locations.

CCD Breakfast

The CCD Program Is looking for the Knights to help assist with their doughnuts.

Light of the world Pizza party
